Report of Treasurer: Balance in checking $49,252.

- . The checking and money market statements were reviewed by the Board.

- . Susan stated she had transferred funds from a CD that was to be renewed, to the money market, per instructions from the Board.

- . Susan also renewed the Treasurer's Bond insurance.

- . Susan will issue a stop payment on a check issued one year ago to Gwinnett Animal Control. The check was issued to Animal Control for purchase of vaccines, but the check was never presented for payment.

Susan stated that if any member wants to view LKC's Liability insurance, Susan will provide the information.

Committees

Show Committee: Ouida has not received the Premium List from MB-F for proofing.

- . The Board discussed adding a Memorial Page to the August Catalog on behalf of Lu Stefanik.

- . The judging panel for February is not complete; however, the show chairs will meet this week to discuss.

Training: Charles stated the next training session will start the week of September 12.

- . The CGC for the current session is June 23.

Charles announced that this is his last session as Director of Training.

He will also resign from Puppy and Beginning Obedience training.

Charles has made commitments which will keep him from being available.

The Board will address the need for a Director of Training at a future meeting.

Continued

Liz Hallsworth's brags:

I have had a wonderful run of winning and I am very thankful to all the judges that saw the beauty and conformation in my dogs.

At the Watkinsville show:

McCormick's Lad O' My Dreams earned his Championship He is owned and shown exclusive by a newbie to the show ring, this is her first Champion and she did it in style earning his championship with 4, 4 point Majors. I am very Happy for Vivian and proud of her hard work finishing a boy that I bred.

At the same show McCormick's Redwood Dream earned WB both day and the second day earned a 4 point major at the ripe old age of 9 months, she is co-owned by me with Abby Vines (junior handler).

Abby earned Best Junior in show on Saturday in Watkinsville.

Abby's special, McCormick's Dream Catcher earned select dog earning 2 majors towards his Grand Championship. We had a great weekend in Watkinsville I did something I never thought possible, I had three dogs I bred in the ring earn points. Chief earning a select major, Laddie earning WD and BW to finish his championship and Hope earning WB.

The next weekend Abby and I went to Perry and were joined by a friend from Florida who I co-bred with.

Abby and Chief won Reserve Best In Show Owner Handle!!!!

Abby also earned another Best Junior showing Chief one of the four days she showed.

Chief earned 4 more majors towards his grand championship and earned bred one of the days.

My boy Cast who I co-own and bred with Karen Abhalter and Nanette Cowgill , McCormick's Coralrocks Heaven Sent O'Podauri, won WD and BW earning two Majors

Additional my best friends girl won WB 2 of the days earning a Major one of them.

This means my boy Chase had three dogs he sired as winners in the ring one of the days for WD, WB, and Bred. They all three had different Dams so it is really a credit to him and the Cairns of Redwood Kennel in Colorado, I am very blessed that Sue Angelo blessed me with Chase. .

I also showed my newest girl Peace in the 4-6 month old puppy class and admittedly she had the upper hand and needs classes, so George I'm bringing a wild one!

So it is time to take a rest and enjoy my newest litter from Dirty Harry, CH Brigadoon's McCormick Dirty Harry and Dam Dixie, CH McCormick's Southern Dream and , 2 girls and 3 boys My niece says I should call them my Pasta litter so I did, So here is the pasta kids, pictured left to right is Ziti, Bowtie, Penne, Noodles and Ravioli
